Dear Sir or Madam,

I am pleased to send you an overview of the World Trade Institute (WTI)'s Master of International Law and Economics (MILE) Programme and Summer Academy.

The WTI ranks as one of the world's leading institutions offering graduate education and training in international trade and investment. Our courses are unique because they fuse legal, economic and international relations perspectives. They are taught by a global faculty of leading experts who join us in our mission to meet the needs of professionals and students from around the world who request state-of-the-art training:

Join our MILE Programme or Summer Academy

World Trade Institute
University of Bern
Switzerland

Summer Academy 2015

6 July – 7 August 2015 in Bern, Switzerland

The 13th WTI Summer Academy is aimed at professionals and students who wish to join us for one or more weeks of advanced training in July and August 2015. Courses include:

Week 1: 6-10 July
Trade and Investment Law:
Latest Trends in Jurisprudence with Thomas Cottier (World Trade Institute, University of Bern) and Valerie Hughes (World Trade Organization): Trade Law: 6-8 July; Rodrigo Polanco (World Trade Institute, University of Bern): Investment Law: 9-10 July

Week 2: 13-16 July
Recent Developments in the Law, Economics and Policy of Contingent Protection with Mark Koulen and Andrea Mastromatteo (World Trade Organization)

17 July: Day-long field trip to the WTO, Geneva
Master of International Law and Economics
The MILE is a one-year, interdisciplinary graduate degree programme designed for students and professionals who wish to embark on a career in international trade. Visit the MILE section of our website to learn why MILE is a unique and rewarding academic, professional and personal experience.

WTI Summer Academy
The Summer Academy offers you a selection of five one-week courses on prominent topics in international investment and trade. The courses and faculty – drawn from academia, international organisations and leading law firms – are presented on this page. For more information, please visit the Summer Academy page of our website.

E-learning and à la Carte Training
Further training options at the WTI include MILE à la Carte, offering participants admission to individual MILE teaching modules, and tailor-made courses for institutional partners. These courses are designed for participants in need of selective training in specific areas of international trade and investment.

We would be most grateful if you would pass on the information about our courses to prospective participants. Contact us at inquire@wti.org and we will be delighted to provide you with additional details about the WTI and its programmes and – better still – to

Week 3: 20-24 July (in partnership with UNCTAD)
Global Value Chains: Implications for Trade and Investment Policy Governance
with Richard Bolwijn (United Nations Conference on Trade and Development), Stephen Gelb (World Trade Institute, University of Bern) and Sébastien Miroudot (The Organisation for Economic Cooperation and Development)

Week 4: 27-31 July
Preferential Trade and the WTO: Addressing the Systemic Challenges with Joseph Francois, Manfred Elsig and Rodrigo Polanco (World Trade Institute, University of Bern)

Week 5: 3-7 August
New Frontiers in Services Trade with Erik van de Marel (European Centre for International Political Economy), Pierre Sauvé and Mira Burri (World Trade Institute, University of Bern)

Click Here For More Details
welcome you soon to Bern!

Kind regards,

Joseph Francois
Managing Director
World Trade Institute, University of Bern
Hallerstrasse 6
3012 Bern, Switzerland