

Vacancies in January 2014 for internships in The British International School

Marketing and Tourism Departments in London, for a minimum of 3 months.

On the basis of the student's main language skills, for departments:

Marketing Department, he/she will be in charge of market research, country analysis, management of the customer service, planning and setting up of new strategies to enhance the partnerships with stakeholders, agencies within the market.

Alternatively, he/she may be considered for the Tourism Department, looking after incoming groups of students, taking them around London during their holiday stay or study trips ensuring they go around safely or monitoring bookings of hotels, restaurants or any other service.

There is generally the chance for he/she to swap from one to another department during his/her internship in order to get as much experience as possible.

Our interns have also the opportunity to attend Business and General English classes in our school paying only a very affordable fee. A further benefit will be a discount on the cost of the transport.

Our company often hosts students for Erasmus or Leonardo projects.
