Residence Permit	All international students in Türkiye are required to obtain a student residence permit during their period of study. "Short Term Residence Permit" is a document that you must obtain showing you have entered our country legally and do not have another legal right (international protection applicant/status holder, temporary protection holder/work permit holder, etc.) to stay in our country.

	The “Short Term Residence Permit Application Process” booklets are attached. Students of exchange programs (Erasmus, Mevlana, etc.) will apply for their Residence Permit Certificate in person to the Izmir Provincial Directorate of Immigration Management (Immigration Office). You can also find detailed information here: https://e-ikamet.goc.gov.tr/ikamet/BasvurulstenenBelgeler/BasvuruFormulstenenBelgeler?tur=0 Landing page of residence permit: https://en.goc.gov.tr/residence-1 Those who have Turkish citizenship (dual nationality) or Blue Card from Germany do not need to apply for residence permit.

The students from those countries can benefit from General Turkish Health Insurance without any fees. Students have to bring the original “Medical Assistance Entitlement Certificate” with them and present it to the Social Security Directorate in Izmir.
